

IRENE FARICY.

Irene M. Faricy, well-known St. Paul musician, died Friday at the home of her sister, Mrs. James M. Sweeney, 77 North Oxford street, that city, after a short illness. Born in Credit River, Minn., she moved to St. Paul in 1920. She was a graduate of St. Agatha's conservatory of music there. Prominent in girls' club work, Miss Faricy was formerly president of the St. Theresa's club and the Joan of Arc club. She was a counselor of the St. Luke's girls' camp. She is survived by her sister and by six brothers, all of St. Paul. Funeral services will take place in St. Paul Monday morning. Burial will be in Credit River.
